

St. Louis Teacher Recalls 7 Years Of Nazi Terror

By TOM PENDERGAST
ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—As former Austrian Chancellor Kurt von Schuschnigg looks back 25 years into history, his face flinches with the memories.

The man Hitler personally persecuted is now 66 and a professor of political science at St. Louis University. Despite seven years of imprisonment and torture by the Gestapo, he looks more like 50.

"Life has not been easy on me," he said in a rare interview. "I don't like to talk about it—with anyone. In fact, I am a fanatical believer in privacy."

Twenty-five years ago this month on March 11, 1938, Nazi Germany invaded his homeland, and Schuschnigg resigned in a famous national radio address, imploring: "God protect Austria!"

When Hitler struck he ordered Schuschnigg held in "protective custody."

Schuschnigg doesn't like to think about those years, he said. But this week he went to the St. Louis library to read old newspapers from those tempestuous times.

He said Nazi terror tactics practiced against him during what he called "seven years of hell" and those practiced by some Communist nations appear identical. "I think the Russians started it first during their revolution, and the Gestapo merely amplified it."

While imprisoned in Vienna he married, by proxy, the late Countess Vera Fugger von Babenhausen. The Nazis later imprisoned her with Schuschnigg in Munich, where their daughter, Sissy, was born.

"I'll never forget when they transferred us to Dauchau," dreaded extermination camp for political prisoners and Jews, he said. "Just before American troops arrived a British prisoner showed me a typed and signed execution order for me and my family. But we were saved at the last minute."

Schuschnigg is through as a politician.

"I regret nothing that has happened, although life has not been easy on me. I don't ever intend to get into politics again. In fact, I have sworn I never will."

He said he liked teaching at St. Louis University, and beamed at the thought of students he had taught over the last 15 years.

Gov. Romney Flies To Washington In ADC-U Bill Fight

LANSING (AP) — Gov. George Romney was flying in a state National Guard plane to Washington today, seeking settlement of a dispute that threatens to block Michigan's ADC-U program.

Anthony Celebrezze, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, had wired Romney saying that the measure passed by the legislature did not meet federal standards.

The head of the federal agency said the Michigan bill is arbitrary and discriminatory and unacceptable.

The Democratic cabinet member told the Republican governor the proposed plan to bring Michigan under the federal program for aid to dependent children mostly was unacceptable because it excluded those not covered by unemployment compensation.

Romney shot back that he believed it is up to the individual states to determine eligibility.

Rahoi Move Defeated

After an exchange of telegrams, Romney made a person-to-person telephone call to Celebrezze. The result was a date for a 3:30 p.m. meeting to try and thrash out the issue.

Romney was taking along his legal aide, Richard Van Dusen; Lynn Kellogg, acting State Director of Social Welfare, and Richard Millman, press secretary.

The 10-seater DC-3, hastily ordered by Romney, was due to take off from Lansing at 9:30 a.m. and arrive in Washington shortly after noon.

Sen. Phillip Rahoi, D - Iron Mountain, leader of the Democratic forces trying for liberalizing amendment of Romney's bill had one defeat Thursday.

Rahoi's motion to recall the bill and replace it with his own measure was defeated in the Senate by a 21-9 vote.

Senate Works Late

Rahoi reported that Democrats, led by Sen. Phil Hart, were going to work against the governor, urging rejection. Rahoi has also said he will carry his fight against the bill up to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Meanwhile, the Senate worked late Thursday night — hoping to quit early today — with its major accomplishment the reporting out of the higher education bill asked by Romney.

The senators toiled until nearly 10 o'clock last night and decided to return at 10 a.m. today, their goal being to adjourn for the weekend by noon.

Sen. Frank Beadle, R-St. Clair, chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee, reported out favorably the higher education bill asked for by Romney. The total added up to $122,704,777.

There were several changes from the bill as recommended by the governor. Amendments took away $386,396 from the combined appropriation for the agriculture and extension services at Michigan State University and added $500,000 to the Wayne State University appropriation.

The switch of funds is planned to enable the Wayne State Medical School to increase the number of students in medical classes from 100 to 125.

The amended bill also cut the proposed salary hike for the superintendent of public instruction from $22,500 to $20,000 a year.

Also moved up to final passage was the open occupancy bill supported by Republican moderates and some Democrats.

The bill is aimed at preventing real estate dealers from discriminating against minority groups in housing.

The first inkling of Democratic support for a Republican-authored congressional reapportionment plan appeared in the House.

The plan is one devised by Rep. Roy Spencer, R-Attica, and destined to be offered as an amendment to the GOP-sponsored proposal now waiting its turn for debate.

"It doesn't look too bad. I certainly have seen worse," said House minority leader Joseph Kowalski, D-Detroit. "I'd say the plan has possibilities."

Kennedy Cools Off Warplane Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP)—With kind words for both sides, President Kennedy has stepped in between senators and defense officials battling over the TFX warplane probe.

In so many words Thursday he told the Pentagon to wait in a neutral corner for the investigation's outcome which he said would prove that Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara was right in awarding the big contract to General Dynamics Corp.

"I see nothing wrong with Congress looking at these matters," the President told his news conference. "My judgment is that the decision reached by Secretary McNamara was the right one, sound one, and any fair and objective hearing will bring that out."

And, he added later, "I assume that the McClellan committee, on which I once served, will render a fair judgment."

Chairman John L. McClellan, D-Ark., hailed Kennedy's words as fair and "nice."

The subcommittee is investigating whether influence was a factor in the Pentagon's award of the contract for the TFX—experimental tactical fighter—to General Dynamics of Fort Worth, Tex., over a lower rival bid by the Boeing Co. of Seattle, Wash.

The $24-million contract covers the start of work on the plane, an all-purpose fighter-bomber to be used by both Air Force and Navy. Eventually 1,700 of the planes will be built at an estimated cost of $6.5 billion.

Kennedy's statement was oil on troubled waters, but only time would tell if he calmed them.

Striking Printers To Vote Again

NEW YORK (AP)—Publishers of eight closed-down newspapers have reached tentative contract agreement with another union.

Announcement of the settlement with the Newspaper and Mail Deliverers Union was made today as the stage was all set for a new vote by striking printers on Mayor Robert F. Wagner's formula for ending the 105-day-old shutdown.

Officers of the printers union predict the men will approve Wagner's terms, already approved by the publishers.

Settlement of the printers strike could get the newspapers back on the streets next week—possibly as early as Monday.

Publishers figure Wagner's formula is a two-year package of $12.63 a week—an increase of $6.51 in the first year and an increase of $6.12 in the second year. This includes a pay raise of $4 a week in each of the two years. The printers' prestrike basic pay averaged $145 a week.

Four of the closed newspapers are strikebound; four are closed voluntarily.

Governor Chooses Scholle Successor

LANSING (AP) — Carl Johnson, Cadillac Republican, is Gov. George Romney's choice to succeed August Scholle, state AFL-CIO leader, on the Conservation Commission. The appointment of a solid Republican to succeed a Democratic labor chief was sure to be confirmed by the Senate.

Johnson, 51, a former official for the Michigan United Conservation Clubs, will succeed Scholle for the balance of a six-year term expiring April 1, 1967.

Bali Volcano Kills 1,100; 100,000 Flee From Homes

Only Political Oblivion Faces Georges Bidault

STEINEBACH, Germany (AP) — Georges Bidault gives the impression of a tragic, hunted exile with little prospect except political oblivion.

He is wanted by the French government and unwanted by the unwilling protectors in Germany. Bidault faces three choices within a few days. None of them gives him much hope of regaining the stature he once had as a distinguished French leader.

He can remain in Germany and give up political activity against his former friend and present enemy, Charles de Gaulle. If he stays, he will have to abandon in fact—even if not in name—the leadership he claims to have over the movement to overthrow De Gaulle.

He'll Be Hunted

He can allow himself to be deported from Germany. In this case, he may, like certain members of the terrorist French Secret Army, find himself wandering from country to country, seeking a refuge where he might operate in the open against his adversary.

Or he can decide to try to escape German police, flee Germany, and resume his clandestine wanderings about Europe. He would have to enter another country illegally and would be hunted by French secret agents.

Bidault says he leads the Council of National Resistance, an organization regarded as the political arm of the secret army which has tried to assassinate De Gaulle.

He is charged in France with being a member of a clandestine organization which has been ordered dissolved because it is plotting against the security of the state. This is not a capital offense. He has not been accused of trying to kill De Gaulle, a crime punishable by death.

Bidault has been under German police guard since he was discovered 12 days ago living with two German journalists in a hilltop villa in this Bavarian village.

He has had no rendezvous with anybody not allowed by the police.

Mere Figurehead

If there still are CNR or secret army men in Bavaria, they apparently have had no direct contact with Bidault since he was found.

Correspondents who have seen Bidault here get the impression that he may have become only a figurehead in the organizations.

Bidault is a former premier and a former foreign minister of France. He headed the wartime resistance against the Nazis while De Gaulle was out of the country. As such, he still has appeal to numerous Frenchmen.

But active leadership of the CNR may have passed elsewhere—perhaps to Jacques Soustelle, another former minister in De Gaulle's government, who is reported hiding in Portugal. Soustelle is a younger, more energetic man.

The Bavarian government says a final decision on Bidault will come this weekend or early next week.

Baby Production Drops In State

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's baby production is in a five-year slump but the birth rate is sure to pick up, reports the Health Department.

The department said there were 182,475 resident births in the state last year, nearly 10,000 fewer than the previous year. It was the fifth year in a row the birth rate has dropped.

Of the babies born last year, 7,998 were illegitimate. Although this was lower than the national illegitimacy rate, it was the highest ever reported for Michigan.

The baby total was the lowest since 1952, when 177,835 were born.

Past statistics, said the department, show there is bound to be a baby boom in the next few years.

The reason is because most of the babies born from 1945 through 1949, when births averaged a steady 150,000 a year, will be getting married and having their own babies.

Agung volcano in northeast Bali spews a pillar of smoke following an eruption which brought death to about 1,000 in the path of the hot lava. The 10,380-foot volcano had been quiet for more than a century. In the foreground is the famed Besakih Temple, which is almost four miles from Agung. (AP Wirephoto via radio from Tokyo)

Lava And Ash Blanket Fertile Riceland Fields

DENPASAR, Bali (AP) — The deluge of lava from sacred Agung volcano was reported to have stopped today after five days of eruption. The governor of Bali said at least 1,100 islanders have perished.

"We have 75,000 homeless people to feed at this point, and we need help from everybody," said Gov. Anak Agung Sutadja.

He said another 200,000 may have lost their livelihood. Thousands of acres of once-fertile rice-land lay beneath tons of lava and ash that have blanketed Bali's northeast coast.

An estimated 100,000 Balinese were fleeing the stricken area. Riding and afoot, they carried what possessions they could as they tried to get away from the 10,380-foot volcano which erupted briefly in February after years of virtual quiet, then went into violent action Sunday.

Crater Still Smoking

Reports from the disaster area said a heavy column of smoke still billowed from the crater.

A civil defense spokesman in Jakarta said earlier that more violent eruptions were feared, and authorities were trying to clear about 250,000 persons from a radius of 20 miles around the volcano.

A mushroom-shaped cloud of smoke could be seen from aircraft flying into Denpasar, but no ash was visible in this capital, about 70 miles southwest of Gunung (Mount) Agung.

Many foreign tourists were on the island, but all were believed safe. Most of them are staying in Denpasar.

Agung awoke with a roar last month. Its first eruption killed 17 people.

Ash Buries Hundreds

Last Sunday it came back with a second explosion, pushing lava down its slopes and burying hundreds of people under a deadly umbrella of searing ash. The governor said most people were killed by the ash cloud. He said the temperature of the ash was 230 degrees.

People who survived the holocaust at 7 a.m. Sunday said it became as dark as night for two minutes, and the ash choked almost everything.

The governor said hundreds were roasted alive in three villages just south of the mountain as they knelt in prayer.

Travelers returning from the area in Bali's northeast reported survivors said many priests and their disciples refused to leave their villages despite the danger.

The governor said many people died in this way in the villages of Sebudi, Sorgah and Sebih.

The deeply religious Balinese—whose life centers on devotion to a mixture of Hinduism and Buddhism—believe that Gunung Agung is the seat of the gods. To many of them the eruption was a signal the deities were angry.

Denpasar Hospital treated eight patients, all first to third degree burns, mostly on their feet—a result of walking through blazing ash.

Sacred Temple Safe

There was little indication here in the island capital of the disaster in the northeastern corner of this tropical paradise, famed as a tourist mecca. Heavy rain—blamed by some people here on the heat rising from the volcano—pelted the town Thursday.

Most of northeast Bali was put off limits to unofficial visitors. Police and troops manned roadblocks on major routes leading into the area. Many northeast towns have been evacuated.

The sacred temple of Besakih on the slope of Agung was reported to have escaped damage.

Besakih is the scene of a festival, held every 100 years to purify the island of roaming ghosts, when Agung erupted. Many islanders believe the gods of the volcano were angry because the people had failed to ask their permission to hold the festival.

Agung is part of a chain of volcanic peaks stretching across the Indonesian Archipelago. It lies some 600 miles to the east of the scene of one of the most catastrophic eruptions ever recorded.

In 1883, the volcanic islet of Krakatoa erupted in the Sunda Strait, causing tidal waves that killed 35,000 people throughout the islands. Dust clouds from the eruption were seen round the world.

President Hopeful As Reds Start Exodus From Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy says the Soviets have withdrawn some 3,000 troops from Cuba in recent weeks—and he hopes this is only a starter.

Kennedy told his news conference Thursday that "we are waiting to see whether more will be withdrawn, as we would hope."

But he said the scope of the withdrawal would not be fairly evident until the end of March.

When the Soviet Union promised last month to withdraw several thousand troops from Cuba by mid-March, the U.S. government estimated Soviet military and technical personnel in Cuba totaled about 17,000.

Kennedy opened the conference by reading a four-minute statement on this three days of talks this week at San Jose, Costa Rica, with the presidents of Panama, Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras and Nicaragua.

No Recession In 1963

Said the President, who flew back to Washington late Wednesday:

"I return from San Jose with increased confidence that we will continue to live in a hemisphere of independent, firm and faithful friends."

Noting that this was his third trip south of the border, Kennedy said that each one makes it clear that Latin Americans "by an overwhelming majority, are ready to work to sacrifice, to fight if necessary, to maintain their own freedom, and to build societies which serve the welfare of all their people."

In the domestic area, two topics were paramount.

Kennedy said, "We don't believe that there will be a recession this year," that economic indicators seem more encouraging. But, he said, later, if the economy falters, and Congress wants to speed up his plan for a three-year tax cut of $10.2 billion, "I would accept that."

Under present conditions, he argued, the administration proposes a proper balance between lower taxes and higher spending on "what we regard as essential programs."

Praise For McNamara

The President gave unqualified support to Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara's handling of the controversial TFX fighter plane contract, awarded to the General Dynamics Corp. despite the lower bid of Boeing Co. The more the Senate Investigations subcommittee explores the contract at hearings, Kennedy said, "the more convinced people are, finally that Secretary McNamara is a very effective secretary of defense and that we are lucky to have him."

Kennedy said McNamara "is willing to make hard decisions" and doesn't mind "that a good many people don't like it." The President said McNamara rejected an appeal by Kennedy's own brother, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., concerning a contract award.

Also in the domestic field, the President said there is nothing to reports that Postmaster General J. Edgar Day will resign before 1964 election.

The President's hopes for a nuclear test ban agreement with the Soviet Union "are somewhat dimmed" but he said the United States will continue working toward that end "because personally I am haunted by the feeling that by 1970, unless we are successful, there may be 10 nuclear powers instead of four, and by 1975, 15 or 20."

Fires In Soviet Refineries Denied

They said at least seven ships have been tied up in Tuapse, the terminal of the Caucasian network of oil pipelines, for 8 to 14 days.

A recent Norwegian report of fires in Soviet oil refineries drew a Soviet denial, but Norwegian sources said it was established that three fires set by saboteurs have been raging in refineries at Novorossiisk.

Laughing Killer Dies In Chair

OSSINING, N.Y. (AP) — Five-time killer Frederick C. Wood was executed in Sing Sing Prison's electric chair Thursday night after anticipating death with a wise-crack and a smile.

To the end, Wood repudiated the efforts of persons he termed "do-gooders" to gain him a reprieve. A derelict who had spent 30 of his 51 years in prison, Wood said he had no wish for further life behind bars.

Instead, he pleaded for an opportunity to "ride the lightning" of the electric chair.

Wood arrived for his "ride" at 10:01 p.m. four minutes later he had come to the end of the journey.

As he entered the death house of the prison 35 miles north of New York City Wood looked around and cracked to the witnesses:

"I have a speech to make on an educational project. You will see the effect of electricity on Wood. Enjoy yourself."

Then, laughing, Wood walked to the electric chair with a cigarette dangling from his mouth, brushed the chair off with his hand and calmly told the assemblage:

"I'll be with you in a moment. Wait'll I get through with my cigarette."

He tossed the cigarette to the floor and sat down as guards strapped him into the death chair. He was still smiling when the traditional black hood was lowered over his face.

Big Centennial Stamp Program To Start April 1

A Centennial Stamp project designed to aid in financing Escanaba's 100th birthday celebration and provide a substantial gift for a Centennial host or hostess was explained to a group of merchants meeting Thursday noon at the House of Ludington.

Harold Cloutier, Centennial activities director, said that about 35 merchants at the meeting voiced approval of the plan and that all persons in the retail trade in the community are invited to participate in the project.

"This is not an endorsement of any stamp program but it is active participation and support of a fund-raising project that will help defray the cost of the Escanaba Centennial," Cloutier explained. "Participation is open to all persons in the retail trade in the area."

How Plan Works
The program will go into effect April 1 and run through June 29, 1963.

Climax of the program will be the presentation of a gift of substantial value to a man or woman who will serve as Centennial Week host or hostess and will have a place of honor in the big Centennial parade to be held Saturday, July 6. Centennial Week will be observed June 30 through July 6.

Merchants, car dealers, gas station operators and fuel dealers will buy the stamps direct from the Centennial Corp. These stamps will be given with each $1 purchase by a consumer. When a consumer has accumulated $25 worth of stamps, he or she may exchange the stamps at Centennial headquarters for a registration certificate as a candidate for host or hostess and the recipient of a Centennial award.

Mead Corporation
To aid in the promotional aspect of the program, double stamp days on a city-wide basis may be designated at the discretion of the retail division and the Centennial executive committee.

No consumer will be entitled to receive more than 500 stamps on any one purchase, regardless of the dollar value of the purchased item. For example: A person buying an automobile for $2,000 would normally be entitled to 2,000 stamps—however, according to the 500 limit ruling, he will receive a maximum of 500 stamps.

The success of the stamp program will depend upon the cooperation of the majority of the merchants in the area. It was pointed out. The committee anticipates that estimated gross revenue from stamp sales will be $8,000, estimated cost of a gift $2,500, cost of advertising and operation $400, and net revenue to help finance the Centennial Celebration $5,100.

Finance Events
This anticipated revenue will finance three major Centennial projects: Travel expense for parade participants, $3,000; log rolling competition, $1,600; and printing of Centennial program $500.

A separate program for solicitation of local business and professional people along with tavern owners and motel operators is being formed up by the executive committee, it was reported.

The Centennial Corp. has employed Mrs. John Stoll to act as agent for the corporation in dispensing the stamps and keeping records of all transactions. She will be on duty at the Chamber of Commerce building Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays beginning April 1.

Standard Makes Record Earnings

CHICAGO — Stockholders of Standard Oil Co. (Indiana) were informed in the annual report, issued today, that total revenues, net earnings, production, refinery runs, and sales for 1962 were the highest in the company's history.

Net earnings were $162 million, a gain of $8 million or 5.6 per cent, on total revenues of $2,655.8 million, an increase of $153 million over 1961. Earnings were $4.53 a share in 1962, compared with $4.30 in the previous year.

Cash income was $10.68 a share compared with $9.95 in 1961. Indiana Standard's total assets, which passed the $3-billion mark in 1961, were $3,108 million at the end of 1962.

On outlook for 1963, President John E. Swearingen said: "Oversupply and competition will continue to exert strong pressures on prices of crude oil and gasoline. Wage increases granted in line with an industry pattern will add about $12 million to the company's costs in 1963."

"On the brighter side, industry increases of about 2.55 per cent in domestic demand and about 8 per cent in free world foreign demand are anticipated. "Prospects for the company are good, and we expect further increases in earnings in 1963."

The luncheon will be attended by the judges, all accepted contestants, members of the Queen's Contest Committee and members of the Centennial executive committee. The panel of five judges (three men and two women) from areas outside the city of Escanaba will select the finalists who will be the official candidates for Centennial Queen.

Six Topics
Contestants will not appear in costume at the luncheon, but will be asked to wear simple sweaters and skirts. Following the luncheon contestants will be introduced and will speak briefly on one of these topics:

Why I would Like to be Centennial Queen.
What I Like Best About Escanaba.

My Family.
My Hobbies.
My Education.
My Plans for the Future.

After the speeches the contestants and judges will adjourn to the Chamber of Commerce building where the panel will interview the girls and complete the judging. Judges selected by the committee will not be announced until all their acceptances have been received.

Contestants will be rated by the judges in four categories: natural beauty; intelligence and speech; personality and poise; and grooming. Each will give the individual candidate a numerical rating. The committee will average the ratings and finalists will be named.

Measles Vaccine Made Available

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington: ON THE WANE? The government has granted licenses for general distribution of two forms of measles vaccine. One may be available in a day or so, just as the measles' season gets in full swing.

"This is one of our most significant advances in recent years toward decreasing or eliminating one of our most serious childhood diseases," said U.S. Surgeon General Luther L. Terry.

At a news conference Thursday, Terry predicted "a very sharp decrease" in the disease next season.

There have been more than 4 million cases of measles each year in the United States, with 400 deaths, and the disease has been an even greater killer in foreign countries, he said.

With widespread use of the vaccine, Terry said it was possible the disease could be virtually eradicated within two years.

Chas. Pfizer & Co. received a license to market the inactivated or "killed" virus vaccine. Merck, Sharp & Dohme was licensed to market "live" virus vaccine.

NET WORTH: Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara has estimated his financial worth at $1,278,200, mostly in common stocks and bonds.

The Pentagon announced that McNamara voluntarily gave the Senate Investigations subcommittee an up-to-date statement of his personal finances "because of newspaper reports that the committee's investigating staff is examining possible self-interest on the part of Pentagon officials in the award of the TFX (warplane) contract." There has been no suggestion in the hearings, however, that McNamara had a personal stake in the award of the potential $6.5 billion contract to General Dynamics Corp.

When McNamara joined the Cabinet in 1961, he gave up an annual salary and bonus totaling $500,000 as president of Ford Motor Co. for an annual salary of $25,000 as secretary of defense.

FOREIGN AID: The U.S. Chamber of Commerce has urged a new approach to foreign aid and has described the Alliance for Progress in Latin America as close to disaster.

In a statement Thursday, chamber directors contended that assistance should place heavier stress on private enterprise and on foreign policy goals.

As for the Alliance for Progress, the chamber said: "The machinery of the alliance is in serious disarray, and its manifest inability to quickly satisfy expectations aroused beyond attainable levels could prove disastrous unless strong corrective measures are adopted."

A presidential committee headed by retired Gen. Lucius D. Clay has been investigating the foreign aid program and is due to make its report public late Saturday.

Cooperation Goal In Dog Law Change

Escanaba's dog ordinance may have to be amended to conform to the requirements of the state dog law, City Manager George Harvey said at a meeting of the City Council last night.

He reported that the dog situation is under consideration and that discussions have been held with City Attorney John G. Erickson, Delta County Sheriff Cully Johnson, and County Dog Warden Hector Larson.

The purpose of the discussions is to bring the city into cooperation with the county in the application and enforcement of the state dog law.

Rusha Appointed
The city manager said the conversations between the officials is continuing and that a report will be ready for the Council shortly.

In other business the Council authorized Mayor Harold Vanlerberghe and City Clerk Don Guindon to renew a lease with the Chicago & North Western Railway for five years for the land on which the Northern Motor Rebuilders plant is located. The rental to the city was originally $194 a year in 1953, was increased to $226 in 1958, and will be $405 annually for the next five years.

Mayor Vanlerberghe with Council approval appointed Howard Rusha, Harnischfeger Corp. employee, to the Recreation Board to succeed Mark Olson, who resigned. Olson was praised by the Council for his public service as a member of the board.

The Council authorized the lighting of the Big Ole sign in the industrial park area at the west city limits. Parcels of land in the area are now being appraised and a sale price will be established so there can be immediate replies to inquiries for industrial sites, the manager reported.

Queen Of 1961 On Honeymoon

EAST LANSING (AP)—Nancy Anne Fleming of Montague, whose homelike talents and brunette, green-eyed beauty won her the Miss America of 1961 title, is honeymooning with her campus sweetheart today.

The 20-year-old former beauty queen and William Johnson, 21, of Okemos, Mich., were married Thursday in the Michigan State University Alumni Memorial Chapel.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was The Rev. William Hahn of Okemos Faith Lutheran Church.

Miss Fleming, a junior in communications, and Johnson, a senior in pre-law, left after the ceremony for a week's skiing in Canada. They will return to classes at MSU for the Spring quarter.

After the newlyweds left in a waiting car, an argument resulted between newspaper photographers and the official portrait cameraman who they accused of trying to obstruct their view.

Miss Fleming previously had said she preferred that news accounts and photographs of the wedding be treated as a society item rather than as general news.

Engineer Checks Franklin School

Inspection of the structural safety of the 81-year-old Franklin School building, recommended by the state fire marshal to the Escanaba Area Public Schools board of Education, has been completed and the engineer's report is expected to be received by the board for its meeting to be held next Tuesday.

Leonard Anhalt of the engineering consulting firm of Graef, Anhalt & Schloemer, Milwaukee, came to Escanaba on Wednesday and completed the inspection on Thursday.

Walter Bright, school superintendent, said that it is hoped that Anhalt will have a written report for the board by Tuesday night.

The state fire marshal has reported that the old Franklin School, built in 1882, is not fire safe and that it may not be structurally sound. At his recommendation the school board hired the engineers to check this safety factor.

The school board will, on the basis of the reports and recommendations, decide whether to keep the school open or close it and transfer the children to other buildings. Meanwhile, to avoid possible injury to the children from falling bricks and mortar, a fence has been placed around the building walls.

Municipal Well Low

Pay raises to employees of the City of Escanaba have totaled 43 per cent in the past 10 years, but the steady betterment of the wage structure faces trouble this year, with another increase appearing doubtful at this time.

Council has asked the city manager to prepare a pay-as-you-go budget for city operations and if this policy prevails there would be no money available for another round of pay increases.

The alternatives, if there's to be a wage boost, would be:

1. For the city to increase its present 12.5 mill tax. It could do this by council action with no vote of the people.
2. To cut city services in some areas so that less spending for such items as street or protective services would provide some money for pay increases.
3. To cut the number of city employees so that survivors could be paid more.

The City of Escanaba has had a belt-tightening process underway for several years and it has already removed the "fat" in sinking funds for equipment purchases, etc., and nearly erased the city's capital improvement program. This erasure is not good planning in a government, industrial operation, or even family financing because it means that there is not an orderly program of accumulation and expenditure for replacement of obsolete facilities and for provision of needed new facilities.

Escanaba has chopped such spending down to a modest minimal amount for a few blocks of alley paving and a little street work. This is too little, but this program was dropped earlier in the effort to meet mounting costs without increasing taxes. The problem of the cost-price squeeze which has affected American business so severely in recent years is now bugging our city government. The old income buys less; the option is to provide less, increase the income or deny pay boosts.

One of the most serious aspects of the situation is that the Board of Tax Review has not reported a substantial growth in the assessed valuation of the city for the year. Such an increase would have enabled the city to get more income without a higher tax rate by spreading it over a larger valuation. The lack of growth is more meaningful than the static income, as it poses a problem for the future. Other wage increases have generally been accompanied by a rising valuation. The Board of Tax Review's hearing of hardship cases asking tax relief indicates that a tax increase would be opposed.

The city employees who are asking wage increases could certainly use them. This is a general need and plaint. Some industrial unions are pressing demands for higher wages and getting them; some are easing their demands because of the obvious problems of industries in which they are employed. A wage increase may make jobs less secure by adding to the cost of competitive products. City employees cite that their pay is less than that of some workers in industrial employment, but their status is not identical and city employment, with its civil service benefits, is not without some compensating advantages.

City council's problem is to keep Escanaba's taxes competitive. As it is, taxes supply only a third of the city's present revenue, the rest coming from its utilities (which are linked to the wage problem), and other sources. A gentling of the wage problem may be as good a solution as any, as city employees best opportunities come when the city is thriving and able to pay wage increases. Pay boosts that come out of growth and not tax rate increases, then, are most helpful, all around.

The discussion should not create the impression that the City of Escanaba is broke. It isn't. Boosting wages without boosting taxes is its problem.

Sandy Advertisises

State Senator Harold Hughes (R-Clare) protests that State Treasurer Sandy Brown used to issue state checks headed: "STATE OF MICHIGAN - Sanford A. Brown State Treasurer - Lansing" and now they're appearing "SANFORD A. BROWN - State Treasurer - State of Michigan."

Brown insisted that he knew nothing about the change, that it was ordered by his deputy, Thomas J. Cleary, of Escanaba.

"I'm responsible," said Cleary. "It's my opinion that the name of the person who signs the check should be big enough so that you don't have to squint to read it."

"Said Brown with injured innocence 'I assume the checks are still good.'"

Cleary ordered a 6 months supply of the new checks making Brown bigger than Michigan so Senator Hughes will have to get used to it or buy some hypertension pills. It could have been worse. The treasurer's office usually orders a year's supply of checks.

Cleary may have muffed a big chance in seizing a little one. If he had ordered enough checks for several years he could say at election time: "Re-elect Sandy Brown and economize; otherwise the state will have to buy new check forms!"

Brown offered to solve Senator Hughes' complaint by not signing his check, but Hughes isn't complaining that much.

Rich Or Incumbent

We do not have to wait to have this country's Kremlinologists analyze one part of Soviet Premier Khrushchev's latest speech. His comments on American politics are quite clear.

For one thing, he says only millionaires can run for high office nowadays in the United States. Admittedly it is a costly business to campaign, and a lot of rich men have been competing.

Things are pretty special in the Soviet Union, too. The only men who run for office are those who already hold the job.

Khrushchev also objects to the vast volume of political palaver in this country. Communism is terribly vulnerable on this score. We may have our Hubert Humphreys and Wayne Morises, but even they will fall far short of matching the verbal marathons we get from Fidel Castro—and Khrushchev himself.

Mr. K may be right in saying there are good reasons for not having two major parties in Russia. Radio and television stations would have to blare 24 hours a day, broadcasting the candidates' stuff.

For The Birds

If you've been maintaining a feeder for the neighborhood birds this winter, now is no time to stop—not if you really love the feathered freeloaders.

The National Audubon Society says that the toughest time for birds is in March or April, when late winter storms strike. Birds used to finding food in feeders are less able than others to fend for themselves during hard times.

The society recommends that winter bird feeding be continued until spring has definitely arrived and natural food, such as insects, is available for the birds.

'And They Thought I Was Dead!'

Edson In Washington

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—One key principle in President Kennedy's tax reform program, Treasury officials say, has not been fully appreciated by the general public. It is intended to ease the tax burden on people who are not fully sharing in the nation's prosperity.

Included here are not only those with incomes less than $3,000 a year—who would have to pay no taxes at all—but also with incomes up to $10,000 a year who use the minimum standard deduction instead of itemizing deductions. Working mothers, widows or widowers with dependent children or disabled dependents also would benefit. So would the aged.

The present minimum standard deduction is 10 per cent of the taxpayer's income or $1,000, whichever is less.

Under the proposed reform the minimum would be $300 for a single taxpayer, $400 for a married couple and $100 more for each dependent, up to $1,000 for seven dependents.

These changes would benefit 13 million taxpayers now using the minimum standard deduction. They would apply to taxpayers with incomes of less than $3,000 and no dependents, $4,000 a year and one dependent, $5,000 a year and two dependents and so on up to $10,000 a year and seven dependents.

People who must pay for the care of a child or a disabled dependent of any age in order to hold a job would benefit.

Instead of the present $600 maximum for dependents' care, a person with two dependents could deduct up to $900 and those with three or more the full $1,000.

Even the people over 65 with income from wages, private pensions and dividends would get a tax reduction.

Although the tax exemption on the first $50 of income from dividends and the 4 per cent tax credit on all dividends above that amount would be ended, the 5 per cent in corporation tax rates which the President proposes would more than offset present benefits.

All ceilings on medical expense deductions would be removed, although medical expense below 4 per cent of adjusted gross income could not be counted as a deduction.

People who retire before reaching age 65 would be permitted to continue using the present retirement income credit till they reach 65. People between 62 and 65 who receive social security or railroad retirement benefits would continue to receive them tax exempt, but they would be taxed on other income, the same as all other people under 65.

In summary, the special tax credit proposed for the aged would give 50 per cent of its benefit to people with incomes under $5,000. People over 65 with incomes from $5,000 to $10,000 would get a 17 per cent tax cut. Incomes from $10,000 to $20,000 would get a 17 per cent tax cut. Higher incomes would get cuts of from 8 to 9 per cent.

With the exception of a few older people in the top income brackets, all the 3.4 million aged who now pay some income taxes would benefit from the general tax cuts.

The present retirement income credit and the $600 exemption for those over 65 would be eliminated. In their places there would be a straight $300 cut in taxes for single people over 65. For a married couple, both over 65 and filing a joint return there would be no taxes on income up to $5,778, whereas they must now pay taxes on all taxable income over $2,667.

Even the people over 65 with income from wages, private pensions and dividends would get a tax reduction.

Although the tax exemption on the first $50 of income from dividends and the 4 per cent tax credit on all dividends above that amount would be ended, the 5 per cent in corporation tax rates which the President proposes would more than offset present benefits.

All ceilings on medical expense deductions would be removed, although medical expense below 4 per cent of adjusted gross income could not be counted as a deduction.

People who retire before reaching age 65 would be permitted to continue using the present retirement income credit till they reach 65. People between 62 and 65 who receive social security or railroad retirement benefits would continue to receive them tax exempt, but they would be taxed on other income, the same as all other people under 65.

In summary, the special tax credit proposed for the aged would give 50 per cent of its benefit to people with incomes under $5,000. People over 65 with incomes from $5,000 to $10,000 would get a 17 per cent tax cut. Incomes from $10,000 to $20,000 would get a 17 per cent tax cut. Higher incomes would get cuts of from 8 to 9 per cent.

Spring seems to have arrived on schedule. Heavy rains have aided in the spring breakup and many secondary roads border on impassable. Yesterday's temperature had a low of 34° and a high of 44°.

Mrs. Marguerite Lambert, an Ojibwa Indian, states that Esco or Escho is taken from the word Meskowiak meaning red and Meskowiak has its origin in the word Weskowi, meaning blood, the blood being red. Nana is the word for buck. She adds that "Land of the Red Buck" is the correct interpretation of the name.

MANISTIQUE

GOP Candidates Visit In City

William B. Cudlip, candidate for regent of the University of Michigan and Arthur K. Rouse, candidate for trustee of Michigan State University visited in Manistique Wednesday.

The Republican candidates had planned to visit Tuesday night and attend the Constitution debate in Cooks, but were delayed in Iron Mountain by the snowstorm. Both advocate adoption of the new Constitution and note the education section is approved by school men and educators.

Cudlip, a graduate of the law school of the University of Michigan, was born in Iron Mountain. He is a member of the law firm of Dickinson, Wright, McKean and Cudlip, a director of McLouth Steel Corp., president and director of Ashland Mining Corp., and director and secretary of Michigan Bakeries Inc.

He is a former director of the American Judicature Society, a fellow of the American Bar Foundation, a member of the committee for reorganization of Michigan laws on financial institutions, 1936-37, member of the committee for compilation of Michigan Statutes, 1948, and is former secretary and delegate to the Constitutional convention, serving on its style and drafting committee, and its judicial branch.

Rouse was born in Hillman and is a graduate of Michigan State. He is president of the Rouse Oil Co., of Boyne and the Rouse Insurance Co., of Petoskey and manages three farms in the Boyne City area.

He serves as a director of the Northern Michigan Economic Council, is a consulting director for the Michigan Assn., of Professions, and a director of Radio Free Europe. He served as a trustee of MSU in 1954-60, is coordinator for MSU Alumni Clubs of Northern Michigan, and was treasurer and member of the Boyne City School Board 12 years.

A former captain of the MSU baseball team, he is active in the American Legion, VFW, Rotary (pastor director) Elks, Eagles and Methodist Church. He is a director of the Northern Michigan Republican Assn., and a former member of the Board of Agriculture.

Rouse urges adoption of the new constitution as a first step in placing Michigan's higher education system on a sound, continuing basis. University research centers should increase their programs to attract new industries, MSU should continue its role as the world's leading agricultural university, and Michigan's tourist and resort industry, second ranking after automobiles should be strengthened with studies at university centers, Rouse declares.

Faculty salaries need to be brought in line with neighboring states, for "we owe this to our children." Accelerated degree programs to relieve overcrowding and strengthening of the community college system to meet the problem of spiraling enrollments are advocated by Rouse.

Cudlip states he is enthusiastic about the educational provisions in the new constitution. "Our greatest wealth is a properly educated citizenry and if elected will strive with others to make sure Michigan's entire educational plant is in shape to meet needs of the exciting, demanding and dangerous age in which we live. Our institutions of higher learning must cooperate and be able to do their part in making the state more attractive for new types of industry demanded by the space age. Government, the people and all institutions of higher learning must immediately cooperate to remedy this," he states.

More junior and community colleges will help meet the expected doubling of college and university enrollments in the next 10 years. The colleges and universities, in cooperation with others can be exceedingly helpful in scientific and research projects looking to provision of more jobs through creation of new products by manufacture, he declares.

Ann Landers

Son Bites People

Dear Ann Landers: Our son is 18 months old. He has a nasty habit of biting people. Not only does he bite his playmates, he also bites his father and me.

We have tried various punishments and nothing worked. Last week, out of sheer frustration, I bit him back. This seems to have cured him, temporarily at least.

But how can I take him out in public or to the home of friends? If he should bite, I can't bite him back in the presence of others. They would think I was crazy. Please tell us what to do.—OLATHE, KANSAS.

Dear Olathe: It's not abnormal for an 18-month-old child to bite. If his biting is combined with other symptoms of meanness, however, it could suggest real trouble ahead.

Perhaps there is antagonism between you and your husband. The child may well interpret the snarling and snapping which he witnesses as a desire on the part of his parents to bite one another. Please stop biting the child—in private or in public. Simply isolate him when he bites. He'll know he is being punished. If he is not cured of the habit within two months consult a professional.

Dear Ann Landers: My wife has five brothers. Her mother passed away two years ago and her father has been in poor health ever since. He is 72 years of age and needs someone with him constantly. His housekeeper has given notice that she is leaving within 30 days.

My wife's brothers say that if they can't find a suitable housekeeper for their father (he's so hard to please) we must take him into our home. According to them it's the daughter's place to take in aging parents not the sons'. Each of them has made it clear their wives will not stand for it. My wife has a serious heart condition and is physically unable to take care of her father here. Please tell us what to do. She is a nervous wreck from all the phone conversations. Each of her five brothers calls every day and repeats, "It's your duty!"—TURMOIL.

Dear Turmoil: The notion that it's more a daughter's duty than a son's to care for his aging parents is a neat bit of fiction. The responsibility should be shared by all children.

The solution lies in getting a competent housekeeper. If there is no alternative, hire a practical nurse. The expense, of course, should be split six ways.

Dear Ann Landers: A family in our neighborhood has two sons and a station wagon. The parents

GLADSTONE

Winkelman To Add 8 Stores

A merchandising enterprise that started out successfully in Sault Ste. Marie and had a satellite in St. Ignace and which has had great success in Detroit, has just announced there that it will open 8 new shops, 5 of them in Detroit suburbs.

The expansion program is that of Winkelman Brothers Apparel, Inc., and it was announced by Isadore Winkelman, president. Two of the new stores will be opened in Pittsburgh and one in Cleveland. They will bring the total number of stores in the Winkelman group, which marks its 35th anniversary this year, to 49, with 41 of the establishments in Michigan.

Winkelman said that seven of the new stores will be in new all-weather, air-conditioned and heated mail shopping centers. The first two stores in the expansion program will be in shopping centers where Sears Roebuck & Co. and another large department store will be the major units.

Winkelman now has four stores in Cleveland, and the fifth will be opened late this year in suburban Cleveland Heights. The expansion marks another step in the career of the 61-year-old Winkelman, who pioneered specialty stores for women in Michigan. They opened their first shop in Detroit in 1928 after Upper Peninsula successes.

Associated with Isadore Winkelman was his late brother, Leon G. Winkelman, whose widow is the older sister of Mrs. Anita Lewis, owner of Lewis' women's apparel store, 812 Delta Ave., Gladstone. "I received my training from Leon Winkelman," said Mrs. Lewis "and I have been grateful that he was so generous with it."

A native of Manistique, where his father operated a department store, Isadore Winkelman went to Detroit at the age of 19 to open his own merchandising establishment and 18 months later invested $4,000 to open a men's shop. His profits from that venture enabled him and his brother to finance their first shop for women and to put some of their merchandising theories into practice.

"The idea was," he said "to create a specialty store which would recognize that tasteful fashion, presented against a backdrop of elegant appointments and personal service, would be as appealing to women of moderate means as to those in higher income brackets."

Concealed display racks were a Winkelman innovation in merchandising. Their success is shown in Winkelman sales last year of more than $28 million.

"My father," said Isadore Winkelman, the father of five children, and a leader in civic and community affairs, "taught all of us that a merchant had a definite responsibility to his community. The secondary aspect was return on investment, which, if you adhered to the first belief, somehow seemed to take care of itself. I think it has in my case."

April 1 Election Issue:

Fund Protection To Be Continued

By League of Women Voters
 The present broad state tax powers and protections of public funds are continued with little change in the new constitution to be voted April 1.

These include the statement that the power of taxation shall never be surrendered, suspended, or contracted away; that no evidence of state indebtedness shall be issued except in accordance with the constitution; and that the credit of the state shall not be granted to or in aid of any person, association, or corporation.

Other protections found in both the old and the new constitutions are that the state shall not subscribe to or be interested in the stock of any company, except to invest pension and endowment funds in a manner provided by law; that the state's money may be deposited only in state or national banks; and that no money shall be paid out of the treasury except according to appropriations.

The new constitution requires an annual accounting of all public moneys, state and local, rather than just state and county as at present. Furthermore, uniform accounting systems are required, and all local governments with budgets must hold public budget hearings.

The public's "right to know" is broadened by providing that all financial records and reports shall be open to public inspection.

Sales tax provisions are somewhat changed: Under both old and new constitutions the sales tax may not be more than 4 per cent. However, under the new constitution the legislature has clear authority to exempt food, drugs, and other necessities from the sales tax. Of course, other taxes would be needed to make up the revenue difference.

Michigan's traditional earmarking is continued in the new constitution, but it is made more flexible. One-half of the sales tax will go for schools and colleges including pensions of school employees. One-eighth of the sales tax will go to local governments. Gas and weight taxes will continue to be used for highway purposes, which under the new constitution may be defined by law.

Since there had been a question for some years as to whether the legislature had the power to levy a graduated income tax, the new constitution settled this by saying that it will not be permitted. However, the new constitution makes it possible for the first time to levy a flat-rate income tax on the same base as the federal tax-income minus exemptions and deductions for dependents.

Pensions for employees of the state and of local governments such as cities and school districts are protected in several new ways under the proposed constitution. Pension rights are made contractual obligations of the government, giving them preferred status. Benefit rights which have already accrued may not be cut or eliminated, but pensions may be increased. The new document also requires each unit of government to pay into its pension fund each year enough money to take care of the pension obligations incurred during that year. This is to ensure financial soundness.

The technical problem of how to take care of pension funds is resolved by allowing them to be invested as provided by law.

Author Will Give Lectures At U. M.

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Author Norman Mailer and composer Aaron Copeland will lecture at a University of Michigan next week, the U-M has announced. Mailer, author of "The Naked and The Dead," "Barbary Shore" and "Advertisements For Myself," will read and discuss excerpts from his work as part of the U-M Creative Arts Festival Monday. Copeland will lecture at a concert devoted to his music during the university's third annual Festival of Contemporary Music.

New York Retail Sales Decline As Strike Continues

Federal Reserve data has confirmed the anticipated decline in retail sales in the New York City area during December and January. According to analyses made by the Bureau of Advertising, there was a "consistent and unmistakable" pattern of poorer sales performance by New York City stores as compared with those in nearby areas. Conditions were essentially identical except for one thing: the lack of newspaper advertising in UYC.

Two of the studies involved comparisons of New York City sales with those of Newark and also with retail sales in the New York - New Jersey metropolitan area. Making adjustments for the pre-strike sales pattern in these markets, the Federal Reserve data show the following: (1) in the strike period two weeks prior to Christmas, New York City retail sales declined 3 to 6.5 per cent, and (2) in the five-week period following Christmas, the drop was nearly 10 per cent.

"It takes a strike to bring home to us what we've known all along but never fully appreciate, and this the quality of immediacy that the newspapers provide for an advertiser," J. W. Rindlaub, vice president of BBDO, New York said. "There is a special substance in the printed word. One may discard the trivial and the trashy word, but there is a mysterious, osmotic process involved in reading. We become aware that the printed word is a part of the substance of our lives only when its voice is stilled," Ralph McGill, editor of the Atlanta Constitution & Journal, reported.

Kirtland Warbler Survival Periled

Conservationists have calculated that more than 200 species of mammals and birds have vanished from the earth—because of man—since the beginning of the Christian era.

Intentionally or unintentionally scores of species have been wiped out in America in the few centuries since the first Europeans landed.

In the 20th century, mammal species have been disappearing around the world at the rate of one a year. But it is also in this century that man, appalled by his own power, has altered his behavior and tried to preserve some of his fellow creatures.

For some, like the fabulous passenger pigeon, this recognition of the "rights" of animals and of our spiritual need of animals came too late.

For others, like the bison, it came in time to save for future generations remnants of the great herds which once roamed over half the country.

For others, the issue is still in doubt. The bald eagle and whooping crane, for instance, hover precariously on the verge of extinction.

When once men killed whole

herds and flocks sheerly for the perverse thrill of mass slaughter, they now take great pains to insure that one tiny animal is allowed to continue his way of life unmolested.

The animal is Kirtland's warbler, a half-ounce rarity of fluff and bird bone. No more than 1,000 of the tail-wagging, yellow and gray birds exist in the world—a total weight of about 30 pounds.

The Kirtland's warbler is not yet on the vanishing list, but it could well be. For some not understood reason of evolution, the bird will nest only in certain patchy stands of jack pine in one area of Michigan.

It can't be any old jack pine. It must be a young pine—but not too young, about 10 to 15 years old. The pine must have low-growing, live branches. And it must be somewhere near the Au Sable River valley, Jack pine in other parts of the state doesn't attract the birds. While they fly thousands of miles each year on migrations to the Bahamas, they nest only in the north-central part of the lower peninsula.

In a co-operative program being carried out by the Michigan Department of Conservation, the Michigan Audubon Society, the U. S. Forest Service and the Packaging Corp. of America, power saws are roaring in newly dedicated Huron National Forest near Mio, Mich. Old jack pine is being cut down as the first step in a long-range program of providing more nesting ground for Kirtland's warblers.

Eventually, the Kirtland's Warbler Management Area in the forest will cover more than 4,000 acres and will be under a 60-year rotation of logging, controlled burning, regrowth and logging. The hope is that it will be enough to save the warbler from almost inevitable extinction.

Genie Of Today Comes From Can

By JOY STILLEY
NEW YORK (AP)—The genie doesn't come out of a lamp any more—he comes out of a can.
And today's housewife can command the performance of more magic than Aladdin ever dreamed of, as long as her trigger finger holds out.
In the present pushbutton era, the best homemaker on the block isn't the one who has the shiniest floor or the biggest array of preserves. She's the one who has the largest collection of spray cans and the sturdiest thumb.
Anything I can do, spray can do better—and not only around the house. A few well-aimed gushes of various mists and I can become a model of elegance, from the top of my fiber-board hair to the tip of my spray-polished shoes.
Shrink Feet, Stretch Shoes
And if those shiny shoes are too tight, I needn't suffer an instant. They haven't produced a spray yet to shrink my feet, but there is a new chemical that will stretch the shoes.
Even my stockings in those well-fitting shoes have been assured of longer life after the application of a thin film that prevents a run.

There's a special spray to clean my jewelry, another to dry my nail polish in a hurry and the pleats in my skirts are there to stay, having been soaked into permanent place with spray.
My dress is spotless—I whooshed that stain away. I'm not worried about rain, because I'm also waterproof, courtesy of a spray can.
My husband shares the benefits of modern science too. He used to spray his face with shaving foam, but now he points a different can in a different direction and anoints the head of his electric razor, to lubricate the cutting blades.
Don't Get 'em Mixed
His plants grow like Jack's beanstalk when he applies a bit of stimulating spray in strategic places around the garden. Of course he has always painted only under pressure, but now the paints he uses are under pressure too. Just in case there's something

Varied Specials Coming On TV

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Television has an unusually varied schedule during the next seven days.
On Sunday, ABC has a half-hour biography of the late Marilyn Monroe (9:30-10 p.m. EST) based on clips from old movies and newsreels. Mike Wallace will narrate. Earlier in the day, CBS has an hour special, "Death of a Virus" (4-5) tracing the development of vaccines to control childhood diseases. NBC's Drama Special (10-11) is "Diamond Fever," a thriller with Peter Lorre.
"The Tall American: Gary Cooper," is an hour-long bio-graph of the Western star who died a few months ago and will be shown on NBC Tuesday night (7:30-8:30). Walter Brennan, who knew Cooper all his acting life, will do the narration of the Project 20 effort.

Also on Tuesday there is "The Other Side of the Coin," on NBC's "Dick Powell Theatre." Powell's widow, June Allyson, stars with John Forsythe (9:30-10:30).
Winthrop Rockefeller, rancher and younger brother of New York's governor, sits for a "Self-Portrait," interview Wednesday night (CBS, 7:30-8) with Harry Reasoner asking the questions.
"Fair Exchange," the situation comedy canceled as an hour-long CBS show earlier this season, returns in half-hour form on Thursday night—again on CBS (7:30-8). And on NBC, Andy Williams (10-11) has Vaughn Meader as his guest star, if you're not bored with Kennedy imitations.
Lengthy Stream
The Volga, longest river in Europe, rises on the Valdai plateau and flows 2,290 miles to the Caspian Sea, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

In This Corner

with Roy Crandall

D. J. Erickson, former star athlete at Gwinn and a pitcher for the Esby Cubs in Legion and Waubung League competition, is rated as among the best bets among the sophomore pitchers at Michigan State this spring. The Spartans left this week for a 12-day spring training swing through the south.

Split pickers: Harry Johnson 5-7, Ken Sturdy 5-10, Bev Abrahamson 6-7-10, Jim Farrell 5-10, Margaret DeMarse 5-10, Marvin Palmgren 5-7, Mary Kutches 5-10. Mel & Elmer's recently rammed a 939 game with Shirley Pettit rolling 223, Annette Myers 202, Aggie Baribeau 192, Nancy Ditrach 162 and Theresa Pepin 158.

Efforts are being made to spark interest in reviving girls' softball in Escanaba. A team, sponsored by Major Utilities, has been organized and other teams and sponsors are being sought. Anyone interested may contact Parma Smith. A few years back Escanaba had an outstanding girls' softball team, managed by Cliff Frasher.

Bill Durkins and Jack Kivila of Escanaba still hold the lead in the Upper Peninsula Elks bowling tournament at Ironwood. They rolled a 1,232 on the opening weekend of the tourney. Mel Johnson of Negaunee took over first place in the singles with a 660 series, dropping Durkins' 645 to second place. The new team leader is Blatz of Negaunee with a 2,887 count. Al Rizardi of Iron River took over the all events lead with 1,874 pins.

Jim Devine, head football coach at Iron River since 1958, has announced his resignation effective at the close of the current school year. A native of Norway where he starred in athletics under Allan Ronberg, Devine played varsity football at Western Michigan and coached at Stephenson prior to taking the post at Iron River, where his teams won 14, lost 23 and tied 3. Devine has accepted a teaching position in Florida.

You couldn't beat the Upper Peninsula basketball champions' debut in state tournament action this week. Houghton and Rudyard nailed down quarterfinal victories against tough downstate foes and the classy Negaunee St. Paul nipped powerful Brimley to give all three U.P. representatives a ticket to the semifinals in Lansing.

State Tourney Semifinals At State Capital Tonight

By BERNIE KENNEDY

Associated Press Sports Writer

With the free weekend trip to Lansing no longer a hope, but a reality, Michigan's 16 finest high school basketball teams get down to some slightly more serious basketball playing tonight.

For four of the teams the trip back home Saturday or Sunday will be even more thrilling than the journey to the state capital. They'll be taking along a trophy designating them as state champions. Four others will get runner-up trophies.

For the other teams the trip may seem a little longer. There will be no trophies. All that will be carried on the buses will be the memories of the tournament and the self-satisfaction of helping the team get as far as it did. Tonight's games will be played in six widely scattered sites in the Lansing area.

There are two double headers—one at Michigan State University's Jenison Fieldhouse, and the other at the Lansing Civic Center.

The Class A twin bill at the fieldhouse pits Ferndale (20-0) against Detroit Northwestern (16-2) at 7 p.m., with Saginaw Arthur Hill (20-0) meeting Adrian (17-4) at 8:30 p.m.

Chances are good that the final Saturday night will match the two unbeaten clubs since both are rated slight favorites tonight.

Playing in the two Class C games at the Civic Center are Detroit St. Thomas (19-3) and New Buffalo (18-3) at 7 p.m., and Perry (22-0) and Houghton (18-3) at 8:30 p.m.

Unbeaten, fifth-ranked Perry should get by 10th-ranked Houghton easily, while Detroit St. Thomas will have a tougher job on its hands with New Buffalo, a team that takes pride in its ability to control the backboards.

Defending champion River Rouge (24-1) takes on Rudyard (20-2) of the Upper Peninsula in a Class B game at Lansing Sexton High School at 7 p.m.

The other Class B game has Flushing (20-2) playing Hudsonville Unity Christian (23-1) at the same time at Lansing Everett High School.

River Rouge hasn't met a team

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Former champion Davey Moore was in a coma suffering from "a serious head injury" and his chances of living are poor, a hospital physician said early today after the former champion lost his title to Sugar Ramos in one of three title fights here Thursday night.

Dr. Philip Vogel reported the former featherweight champion was in a deep coma.

"His chances are extremely poor," Dr. Vogel said. He added that Moore had suffered general injury to the mid-brain area and said that Moore's fate probably will be known within the next 12 hours.

No brain operation was contemplated.

All three boxing titles up for grabs had new owners today after a pair of spectacular knockouts and a controversial decision in the ballyhooed triple championships fight extravaganza.

Crowd Of 26,142

A crowd of 26,142 watched as Ramos won the featherweight title in the middle bout by knocking Moore—who was taken by ambulance to a hospital about an hour after the fight. He was unconscious and X-rays were taken.

In the opener at Dodger Stadium, Luis Rodriguez took the welterweight championship away from Emilio Griffith on a decision—unanimous but subject to argument. In the windup, Roberto Cruz wound up and knocked out Batting Torres in the first round and won the vacant junior welterweight title.

The doctor described Moore's injury as a contusion, more serious than a brain concussion. Boxing officials, including Moore's manager, Willie Ketchum, who had asked the bout be stopped, kept vigil at White Memorial Hospital.

Ramos, who lost the early rounds, smashed Moore down in the 10th round and had him draped over a rope and helpless as the round ended.

Ramos Undeclared

In his dressing room, the thronged 126-pound king said "I'd like to fight him again," then, some time after, was taken by ambulance to the White Memorial Hospital. The 29-year-old Moore was rolled out of his dressing room on a table.

Ramos, who fled from Cuba and now makes Mexico City his home, remained undefeated, winning his 41st fight. The two boxers each weighed 125½ pounds for their blistering battle.

Griffith, ironically, was involved in a fatal title fight almost exactly one year ago. He regained the welterweight crown last March 24 at New York's Madison Square Garden by stopping Benny (Kid) Paret, who died of brain injuries suffered in the bout 10 days later.

Rodriguez, an ex-Cuban who now calls Miami, Fla., home, boxed his way to the unanimous verdict over the harder-hitting Griffith.

"I can't understand it," Griffith moaned. "He didn't hurt me once and I hurt him several times. Rodriguez wouldn't stay in there and fight. He kept running."

Fought As Planned

The new 147-pound champion who weighed 146 to 145½ for Griffith, explained, "I planned to keep moving around and use the left jab and hit him in the stomach. The plan worked perfectly. Griffith never hurt me any time."

Referee Tommy Hart scored the bout 9-5. Judge Lee Grossman 8-5 and Judge John Thomas 8-6 all for Rodriguez. The Associated Press scored 8-4 for Griffith.

Cruz, a 21-year-old, was an underdog like Ramos, with odds of 2½-1 against him. But hardly had the crowd settled down after hearing the national anthem of Mexico and the fight was over.

The Filipino said he knocked Torres down first with a right and then twice more with left hooks. The final one came whistling under perfect execution and Torres went flat on the canvas taking a full 10 count. Cruz weighed 138½ to 140, the junior welter limit, for Torres.

Abebe Bikila, left, an Olympic Games champion, has his feet inspected by running partner Mamo Wolde, both of Ethiopia, after a workout in preparation for the Boston marathon next month. Bikila, who runs barefooted, is gobbling up some 6,000 calories and running up to 35 miles per day in preparation for the event. (AP Wirephoto)

Tiger Bats Boom Against Orioles; Mossi Impressive

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—Even though the start of the American League baseball season is more than two weeks away, the Detroit Tigers are playing as if it were the last week of the season and they still had a chance to win the pennant.

The Tigers clobbered the apparently unbeatable Baltimore Orioles 11-1 Thursday.

The game was marked by timely hitting—including two home runs by Al Kaline and one each by Norm Cash and Jake Wood—and a nifty six inning pitching performance by Don Mossi.

Cash also had a double and a triple. Wood added a two-run double.

The Tigers played without Rocky Colavito who was given the day off as part of manager Bob Scheffing's plan to keep his players as fresh as possible. Kaline had the day off Wednesday. It'll be Cash's turn today.

A two-run triple by Cash in the first inning gave Detroit all the runs it needed.

They added five more in the second off Chuck Estrada. The rally was sparked by Wood's double and Kaline's first homer.

Mossi allowed just four hits in the six innings he worked. He walked four and struck out two.

Terry Fox and Bob Dustal finished, with the Orioles getting their only run off Fox in the seventh inning.

The Tigers, who have an 8-5 record in exhibitions so far, were to take on the St. Louis Cardinals at St. Petersburg today.

Two members of the team are still ailing. Pitcher Doug Gailagher is still out with tendinitis in his shoulder. There is no indication when he will return.

Outfielder Whitey Herzog has been sidelined by an apparent fly attack. He was hospitalized Thursday but is expected to be back in uniform this weekend.

Pistons Lose DeBusschere

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Rookie Dave DeBusschere will be in the lineup tonight when the Detroit Pistons attempt to square their National Basketball Association Western Division playoff series with the St. Louis Hawks.

DeBusschere, former University of Detroit baseball basketball star, was poked in the eye near the end of the first quarter in Wednesday night's series opener won by St. Louis 118-99.

He was released from a St. Louis hospital Thursday after being held overnight for observation.

Pearson Waves Potent Lumber

Albie Pearson, the littlest Angel of them all, looks like he's over-matched every time he picks up a baseball bat. The way Pearson's been swinging lately, the bat must feel like a baton.

Pearson, 27, who stands just over 5-foot-5½ and weighs in at 141 pounds after eating, whipped the bat around at the Los Angeles camp again Thursday, leading the Angels to their seventh consecutive exhibition victory, 5-3 over San Francisco at Palm Springs, Calif. He stroked three hits, one a triple. Pearson also stole two bases, which brought quick smiles from Manager Bill Rigney.

The world champion New York Yankees had just finished their game with Washington on the other side of the country in Florida. The teams played to a 7-7, 17-inning tie in a 4-hour, 25-minute marathon at Pompano Beach.

In two other extra inning affairs, Pittsburgh handed Minnesota its fifth loss in a row, 5-4 in 10 innings at Fort Myers and the New York Mets used Charlie Neal's sacrifice fly in the 10th for a 2-1 triumph over Milwaukee at West Palm Beach.

Elsewhere, Al Kaline hit two homers as Detroit crushed Baltimore 11-1 at Lakeland. Cincinnati's Tommy Harper hit a pair in the Reds 7-6 squeaker over the Chicago White Sox at Sarasota. St. Louis whipped Kansas City 6-1 at St. Petersburg. Cleveland checked the Chicago Cubs 7-2 at Mesa, Ariz., Philadelphia defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers 8-7 at Clearwater, Fla. and Boston edged Houston 4-3 at Scottsdale, Ariz.

Basketball Seer Picks Three U.P. Quints To Lose

DETROIT (AP) — Shaken slightly by a rash of upsets (i.e. eight games in which teams I had picked to win were defeated), I'm none the less determined to continue predicting the winners in the state high school basketball tournament.

I was right exactly half of the time in the quarter-final games Wednesday. A 500 average is pretty good if you're a major league ballplayer, but this is something else.

Once again taking the AP's "infallible" crystal ball, here are the choices in tonight's semifinal games:

CLASS A

Ferndale vs. Detroit Northwestern: Ferndale pulled one of the biggest surprises Wednesday by edging highly-regarded Grosse Pointe. Only three ferndale players scored in that one and I'm looking for a little more scoring punch tonight. Ferndale.

Saginaw Arthur Hill vs. Adrian: Adrian has suffered four losses this season. The Craig Dillied Lumberjacks will chop down the Maples easily.

CLASS B

River Rouge vs. Rudyard: It's a pleasure to have teams like River Rouge playing basketball. Just pick the Panthers to win and you'll be right 99.44-100 per cent of the time. The Upper Peninsula may grab one state title, but not in this class.

Flushing vs. Hudsonville Unity Christian: A real toughie. Both teams are terrific. I'll have to go along with Unity to win and give River Rouge a real battle Saturday morning.

CLASS C

New Buffalo vs. Detroit St. Thomas: New Buffalo defeated my favorite to go all the way—Addison—and I should go with the Bisons. But St. Thomas won the state's toughest regional, and I'll pick the Blue Streaks to extend their streak.

Perry vs. Houghton: The hopes of the Upper Peninsula once again are with Houghton. But Perry hasn't tasted defeat all season and there's no reason to believe it will tonight. Perry.

CLASS D

Brethren Norman Dickson vs. Britton Macon: Britton relaxed a little against Camden - Frontier Wednesday and almost got knocked off. The Tories won't make the same mistake tonight. Britton.

Owosso St. Paul vs. Negaunee St. Paul: Only one thing is certain —St. Paul can't lose. Owosso has the better all-around team and will win by a couple of buckets.

Wilt Relegated To Second Team

NEW YORK (AP)—Wilt Chamberlain, San Francisco's 7-foot-1 star, who won the league's scoring championship this year with 3,586 points compared to his record 4,029 of 1962, was not named on the National Basketball Association's 1963 first All-Star team announced Thursday.

The first team laurels went to Elgin Baylor and Jerry West of the Los Angeles Lakers, Bill Russell of the Boston Celtics, Bob Pettit of the St. Louis Hawks and Oscar Robertson of the Cincinnati Royals. Baylor was the only unanimous choice in the voting conducted by Maurice Podoloff, NBA president, among 85 sports writers and broadcasters in the league's nine cities.

Chamberlain was named on the second team along with Boston's Bob Cousy and Tom Heinsohn, Detroit's Bailey Howell and Syracuse's Hal Greer. First team players each will receive $200, those on the second team each get $100.

Warriors Beaten In NIT Tourney

NEW YORK (AP)—A Turtle who treed a Wildcat is the newest—and perhaps most improbable—member of the National Invitation Tournament's starring ranks.

And the harassing job Pat Turner, barely recovered from a broken ankle, did on hot-shooting Wally Jones of the Villanova Wildcats has to be the key reason Canisius is in Saturday's championship game in the 26th annual basketball classic.

With Jones going without a point in the last 16 minutes, the Griffins steamed past Villanova 61-46 Thursday night from a packed house of 18,429 at Madison Square Garden and gained the final along with Providence.

Fast-firing Ray Flynn again paced the Providence Friars, sparking a second-half burst that powered them over Marquette 70-64 in the first match of the semifinal doubleheader.

Turtle, a 5-foot-11 Canisius senior who suffered a right ankle fracture in practice Feb. 5, was idled from then until this past Tuesday night when he played very briefly in the Griffins' 76-67 quarter-final victory over Memphis State. He went in against Jones after the tricky Wildcat had scored 24 points, with Villanova ahead 35-31 and 16 minutes to go.

Escanaba Banks Give City First U.P. Wealth Rank

Escanaba National Bank of Escanaba rose from 13th place among the 48 banks of the Upper Peninsula to 8th place in a listing of banks standings by the Michigan Manufacturer & Financial Record.

The First National Bank of Escanaba continued its third place position in the standings, topped by the First National Bank of Marquette, No. 1, and Union National Bank of Marquette, No. 2. The State Bank of Escanaba was in 14th position.

Escanaba's "three fine banks" had total assets of $30,753,000 to make Escanaba the financial leader of the Upper Peninsula. Marquette's banks led the parade as individuals but had total assets of only $28,691,000.

Assets in millions of the leading banks included:

1st National, Marquette $15.3; Union National, Marquette, $13.3; 1st National, Escanaba, $12.1; Sault Savings, $11.1; Merchants & Miners, Calumet, $10.2; 1st National, Sault, $9.9; Miners 1st National, Ishpeming, $9.8; Escanaba $9.7; Superior National, Hancock, $9.4; Commercial National, Iron Mountain, $9.4; 1st National, Iron Mountain, $9.4; Houghton National, $9.1; 1st National, Negaunee, $9; State Bank, Escanaba, $8.5; Goebie National, Ironwood, $8.4; 1st National, Menominee, $7.4; Commercial, Menominee, $7.2; Central Metals, Ironwood, $7; Central Savings, Sault, $6.8; Peninsula, Ishpeming, $6.1.

The State Savings, Manistique, was 23rd with $5.1; having moved up two position points in the standing; 1st National, St. Ignace, was 24th with $4.7; 1st National, Manistique, 25th with $4.6; Bank of Stephenson, 26th with $4.5; Gladstone State Savings, 31st with $3.9; 1st National, Munising 32nd with $3.7; Newberry State Bank, 33rd with $3.7; 1st National, Gladstone, 36th with $2.9; People's State, Munising 41st with $2.2; Gwinn State Bank, 44th with $1.9; 1st National, Hermansville, 45th with $1.5; Bark River State Bank, 46th with $1.5 and Trenary State Bank, 47th with $1.1 million.

The Upper Peninsula banks on Dec. 31, 1962 had total assets of $280 million compared with $263 million in 1961.

Okay Platting Of School Area

A proposed plat for an area surrounding the new Escanaba Area Public High School was approved by the Planning Commission in meeting last night and will be given public hearing at a date to be announced in April.

The report of the subdivision committee on the revised Precinct No. 5 covers the area from Ludington St. to 8th Ave. S. and from 23rd St. west to the city limits. Following public hearing the plat will be adopted and will provide a guide for the orderly and economical development of the area.

Dale Vinette, chairman of the Planning Commission, conducted the meeting at which it was recommended by the Commission to the City Council that S. 14th St. be vacated south of 16th Ave. S.

This would eliminate the long lateral approach of S. 14th St. into Lake Shore Drive; would turn S. 14th St. traffic into right-angle entrances into other streets at its southern terminus; and would do away with the many fractions of building lots bordering S. 14th St. in that area and would make them large enough for building sites.

Chairmen of the several Planning Commission committees for the year are:

Architecture—Fred Breitenbach; Capital Improvements—Arne Maki; Federal, State and City Projects—James Davidson Jr.; Recreation—Robert Hansley; Industrial—Art Westby; Schools—Ken Christensen; Subdivision—Joe Ivens; Transportation—Ralph Norton; Zoning—Dale Vinette.

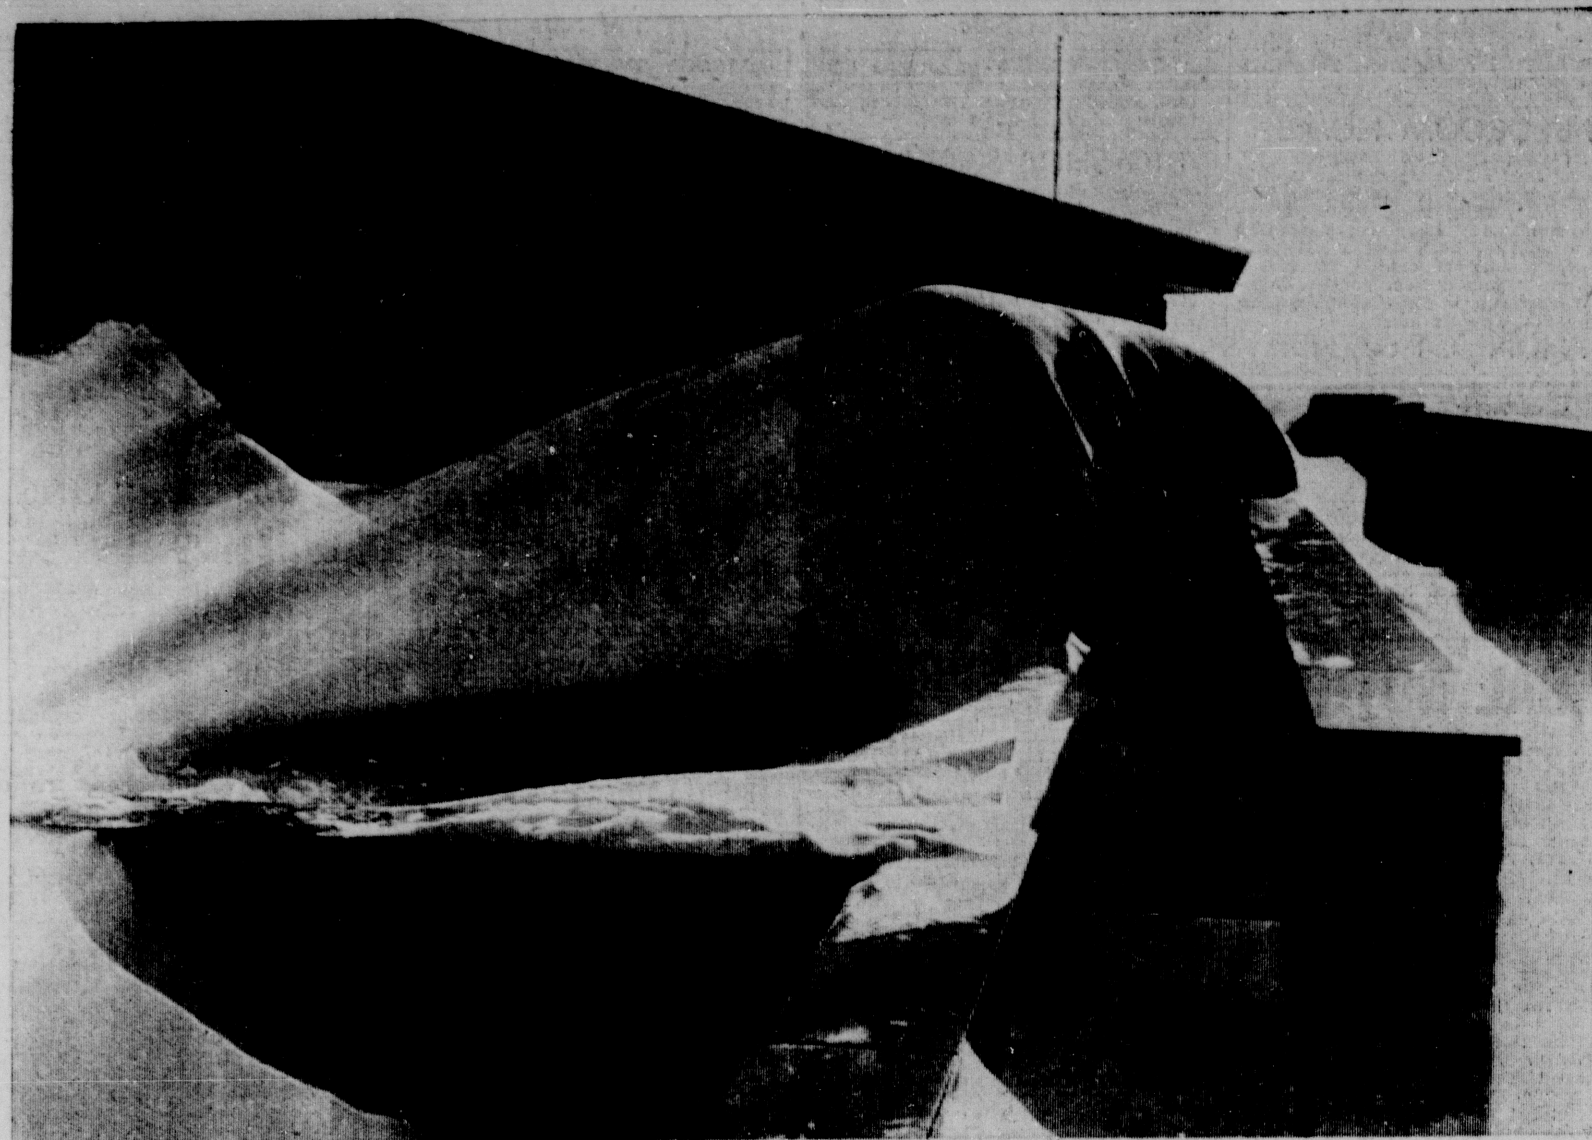

Powers-Spalding Study Area Plan

A Powers-Spalding Regional Planning Commission was organized at a meeting this week in Spalding Township hall.

Acting under Michigan statutes and the Federal Housing Act of 1954, Section 701, it is under the auspices of both the Village Council and the Township board.

Powers and the urbanized portion of Spalding Township, from a functional point of view, form a single urban complex with similar problems and economic potential.

Commission objectives are to plan for the physical, social and economic development of the area, considered a key location at the intersection of the major east-west tourist artery of the Upper Peninsula and a major north-south tourist artery from the Milwaukee and Chicago areas.

Lady Lawmakers Fight Luxury Tax

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — The nine women of the Arizona House of Representatives are on the war-path.

The top of the speaker's rostrum was covered Thursday with handbags of all shapes and sizes.

A sign on the rostrum read: "House Memorial 3 on the debate calendar or else." It was signed, "The Women."

House Memorial 3 urges Congress to repeal the luxury tax on the sale of handbags. The women claim handbags are the same as pockets in a man's trousers and thus a necessity, not a luxury.

Leaves City Job

ROSEVILLE (AP) — Roseville Housing Director George Kirstein, who is charged with soliciting a $30,000 bribe from a building contractor, Thursday was granted a temporary leave of absence from his $8,250-a-year post.

Couple Charged In Infant's Death

MENOMINEE — In a surprise move here Thursday, Russell W. Bradley, Menominee County prosecuting attorney charged a Harris couple with first degree murder in the death of their 18 month old daughter last Dec. 11.

The action came in the midst of a preliminary hearing here on a manslaughter charge against the dead girl's father, Wilfred Jackson, 41.

Chief prosecution witness at the hearing was Jackson's wife, Gladys, 30. Last December she had told Sheriff Edward Reindl that her daughter Jacqueline was killed when Jackson backed over the girl in a car while leaving the family driveway.

The sheriff quoted the woman as saying she placed the girl in the path of the car in order to prevent Jackson from leaving after a family argument.

Jackson has maintained his wife threw the baby in the path of the car as he was backing out.

Bradley said the couple would be arraigned this afternoon before Emil Ewald, Menominee justice of the peace. It is expected the manslaughter charge against Jackson will be dropped at the arraignment.

Reindl arrested Mrs. Jackson Wednesday. The couple is being held without bail at the county jail here.

Amvets Auxiliary Aids School Fund

The Escanaba Amvets Auxiliary in one of its recent public service projects raised $25 to assist the fund to finance construction of a school building for retarded children. The contribution was proceeds from a bake sale sponsored by the Amvets Auxiliary, whose commander is Mrs. Mary Nault.

The committee for the fund-raising sale was composed of Mesdames Joyce Koish, Janice Parlato, Rose Coolman, Phyllis Heyson, Carol Little and Audrey Dubord.

Briefly Told

Two women were injured, neither seriously, in a traffic accident on M-35 at Sylvan Point at 10:40 a.m. Thursday, it is reported by Escanaba Police.

Connie M. Jorgensen, driver of the car, and Mrs. Kermit Jorgenson, a passenger, both of Ford River Road, suffered bruises when their car was jolted by a passing Red Owl Co. truck driven by Leon J. Hussong, Green Bay. Hussong continued on, unaware of the mishap. The women were treated at St. Francis Hospital and released.

File Injunction To Stop Vote At Spread Eagle

SPREAD EAGLE—The bitter court battle which has been raging between Spread Eagle and the Town of Florence continues today with a hearing on an injunction before Circuit Judge Arold F. Murphy.

The Town of Florence, through its attorney, Walter Dalla Grana, has filed an injunction to stop the new Town of Spread Eagle from holding its first election, which is planned for April 2.

The election machinery has been set up and 13 candidates have filed for offices of the new town.

A brief history of the long, drawn-out hassle between Spread Eagle and the Town of Florence shows Spread Eagle in an attempt to become a town independent of Florence, of which it has been a part for at least 75 years, lost three court cases.

Spread Eagle appealed the third court loss to the Wisconsin State Supreme court, which did not accept Judge Murphy's decision in favor of Florence.

As the result, Judge Murphy reversed his decision and issued a court order creating the new Town of Spread Eagle last Dec. 5.

Several weeks ago, just under the 90-day deadline, the Town of Florence appealed Judge Murphy's Dec. 5 decision to the State Supreme court, asking the court to reverse its and Judge Murphy's decision.

It may take six months for the State Supreme court to act on the appeal.

Now, the injunction to stop the April 2 Spread Eagle election on the claim that Spread Eagle cannot legally hold an election until the State Supreme court makes a decision on the appeal and that the court order creating the new town should be stayed until the decision on the appeal is made.

New $500,000 Building At Sault Tech Is Approved

SAULT STE. MARIE — The Michigan Senate appropriations committee this week approved $500,000 in funds for a new classroom building at the Sault Ste. Marie Branch of Michigan College of Mining and Technology, according to word received by Sen. Kent Lundgren.

Lundgren said he is planning to introduce a concurrent resolution to both the Senate and House to approve plans for the new building and to appropriate the necessary funds.

Harry Crawford, Sault branch resident director, said he was pleased to hear this news and hopes that construction of the new facility can be started early this spring.

Total cost of the new building should be $750,000 of which $250,000 was appropriated last year. The new building will replace a classroom structure destroyed by fire last spring.

Strike Tie-Ups Cripple France

LONDON (AP) — Chances of victory for Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's Conservatives in forthcoming national elections looked no better today after the party lost ground in a race for a House of Commons vacancy.

Conservative candidate Andrew Alexander finished third in a Yorkshire district, drawing only 15 per cent of the vote. In 1959 the Conservative candidate got 25 per cent of the vote and finished second in the Labor-dominated district.

The results were: Dr. Patrick Duffy, Labor, 18,033; Richard Wainwright, Liberal, 15,994; Alexander, 6,238; Arthur Fox, Independent, 226.

PARIS (AP) — Four-hour gas and electricity cuts added to the woes of strike-weary Frenchmen today. Thousands of Parisians got up an hour or two early to get to work before subways and electric trains were halted from 8 a.m. to noon.

Many offices gave employees the morning off.

The electricity and gas strikes were part of the rolling wave in nationalized industries which bring a new form of economic crippling to France almost daily. Workers in the nationalized industries complain that their salaries have fallen far behind those in private industry.

A government commission is studying the comparative wage structures of private and nationalized industries. The report is expected to be finished tonight.

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — Swedes are getting thirstier and thirstier because of the liquor strike, in its fourth week. No settlement is in sight.

A third of Stockholm's 53 liquor stores have closed. Most of those still open have only expensive champagne and domestic beer on their shelves.

Foremen in the State Liquor Monopoly struck Feb. 28 for better vacation benefits, closing the government distilleries. Negotiators say the difference have not been narrowed.

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — Janos Kadar, Hungary's premier and Communist party boss, has declared a sweeping amnesty for political crimes, including participation in the abortive 1956 revolt. Cases of espionage and high treason were among the crimes not covered, and it was not clear whether the edict applies to Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Hungary's Roman Catholic primate.

The cardinal was convicted in 1949 of conspiring with Western diplomats to overthrow the Communist regime and of engaging black market currency operations. He was freed during the 1956 revolt but took refuge in the U.S. Legation in Budapest when the revolt was crushed.

If you find this Chrysler price unbelievable, come in and let us prove it to you.

A surprising number of people walk into Chrysler showrooms carrying one of our $2964 advertisements. They find the price almost incredible and ask us to prove it to them.

We're always glad to oblige.

We offer full-size evidence that a Chrysler at that $2964 price is every bit a Chrysler with all the quality and engineering greatness one expects in a car of this reputation.

There's the look of Chrysler . . . crisp, custom beauty that says luxury all over. There's big V-8 power, for example, that runs like a Swiss watch on economical regular fuel. Torsion-bar ride that snuffs out bumps yet handles with the agility of a pro-

We welcome skeptics, the kind who figure Chrysler's crisp custom beauty is too rich for their taste.

We're happy to report that we've turned thousands of them into contented Chrysler owners.
